

Attention FDA

0347 '00 APR -6 P1:30

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No. I don't like them poking & squinting stuff in my ears

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

there is one lady here that is blind can't ~~drive~~ drive.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No. No. No. I don't like anyone telling me what I can & can't do.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

You bet your bottom dollar I think it is my right to do as I choose.
